

Leave Satilite Radio alone. Now that they are offering the services that all of America wants the local stations want to take that business away from them. That is not what the free entriprise system is based on.

Paul Rhoades